"Nature's Vitality"

10.07.2021 – 14.08.2021

The work being shown here is all from a time just before we were locked down for Covid 19, during the lockdown and in between. This exhibition is divided into three parts:

Small landscapes painted on engineered wood from our renovation to our cottage.
Abstract paintings of flowers in dynamic acrylic. Prints from my series of paintings on paper called Springtime Vitality. They represent the beauty all around me in color, energy, vibrancy and negative space. This is the first time that I have taken prints from my original artworks. This small collection is being released in a very affordable limited edition of 30 each in two sizes.

All three parts of this show are inspired by my exposure and involvement with our vivid vineyard landscape in Red Hill .

This is a continuing inspiration.....
