The Tennant Creek Men's art program started in 2016 as an art therapy/outreach program set up by Anyinginyi Health Aboriginal Corp. The group, a mix of fringe dwellers and emerging cultural leaders, have continued to work together and often collaboratively, forming a unique and cutting-edge artists collective named 'The Tennant Creek Brio'. Their work pushes conventions, drawing on imagery and traditions from the Wirnkarra (Dreaming), the Old Testament and mythic iconography from around the world. Their action paintings and performance represent the enthusiasm and dedication of the collective as they continue to develop a cathartic visual language fueled by the complexities of life in Tennant Creek.

This exhibition is in collaboration with Nyinkka Nyunyu Art & Culture Centre, Julalikari Council Aboriginal Corporation and Chapman & Bailey.
